September

Reunite with your friends after a sensational summer of fun, and invite them to join you at our "Make New Friends, Keep the Old" playdate. Everyone will enjoy creating a special friendship craft and snacking on delicious, pal-pleasing treats. It's something best friends, both old and new, will love.

October

It's pumpkins, boo-tiful Princesses and all things spooky. "The Halloween" playdate is Princess and Knight friendly, featuring "Pin the Tail on the Pumpkin", "Witch Hat Ring Toss", and lots of crafty treats that everyone in court will love goblin' up.

November

Kings and Queens will give thanks when their Knights and Princesses practice good manners at the "Thanksgiving" playdate. All small royals will gather to help set the Thanksgiving day table, create a place card and then dress up in Indian finery to feast upon delicious turkey shaped sugar cookies.

December

'Tis the season for the "Holiday" playdate, sure to delight both Chanukah and Christmas participants. Princesses and Knights will decorate the castle windows with menorahs and trim the tree with candy canes and gingerbread children. Then everyone will snack on Chanukah and Christmas shaped sugar cookies, chocolate coins and ice cream served in miniature gingerbread houses, as they are entertained with the heartwarming tale of an industrious little mouse who builds a gingerbread house.

January

When the cold wind blows, both Princesses and Knights can drift in for a toasty good time and a "Misty the Magical Snowman" playdate. Royal participants will decorate frosty windows with snowflakes, and play "Toss the Snowman". Every Princess may then choose to select a silver and white snowflake cape, an accessory that will truly dazzle the kingdom, sip delicious hot chocolate brimming with marshmallows and snack on s'mores.

February

It's all about hearts all month long during the "Heartfelt" playdate. Princesses will adore donning white fur capes adorned with red hearts to savor heart shaped cupcakes royally served on heart shaped plates. And when they're ready for some fun, they can decorate the pretty pink tree and their very own charming picture frame with red and pink hearts

March 2nd-17th

By Blarney it's the time of the year that Let's Dress Up turns from pink to green at the "Leprechaun" playdate. The wee folk will delight in snacking on shamrock cookies, listening to the tale of "Lucky the Leprechaun's" mischievous deeds and following Lucky's tiny foot prints to the pot of gold (chocolate coins) at the end of the rainbow.

March 18th-End of April

Princess Powder Puff, the ballerina bunny and her frou-frou friends hop on over to Let's Dress Up for our "Swing Into Spring" playdate. Sweet nibbles served on bunny place mats and flower plates are sure to please even the tiniest ballerina as they twirl away the time with a cute story and craft.

May

At our "Fancy Fairies" playdate, Princesses in gossamer gowns will frolic, fluff, flutter and finally alight on tiny chairs for a magical tea party complete with sweet snacks, a woodland fairy game and a fantastical fairy craft creation.

June

Princesses are sure to be submerged in fun at "The Mermaid" playdate. Every sea creature will enjoy guppy games, sweet mermaid delica-seas, and a special mermaid tale. Be sure to "get in the swim" when this popular playdate theme splashes into the Hamptons at the Children's Museum of the East End.
